Welcome

We are fortunate in Melbourne to have access to some great golfing regions, and the Bellarine Peninsula is one such example. Easily accessed from Melbourne by car the area boasts some fine links golf, in beautiful surroundings. For your itinerary we have opted for a twin centre trip, basing yourselves at Barwon Heads Golf Club and then in the resort town of Torquay. Two very different styles of accommodation which add a nice blend to the trip with the beautiful club house at Barwon Heads that also offers evening meals in its restaurant and the resort style option in Torquay with the facilities that come with it.

You will play 5 games of golf including the newly renovated Lonsdale Links as well as firm favourites at Barwon Heads and 13th Beach.

Included in your trip:

- 4 nights accommodation as listed
- Breakfast, lunch and dinner included at Barwon Heads Golf Club only
- 5 games of golf with shared motorised carts (Carts to be paid for locally at Barwon Heads if available)
- Support of GOLFSelect services

Itinerary Day-by-Day

Monday, 22 March 2021

-  Arrive at Barwon Heads Golf Club through own arrangements and check in | You can check in to your accommodation after your round of golf. Please also note standard golf dress requirements apply on the course and in the club house.
-  There is limited covered parking available behind the clubhouse, or there is car parking out the front of the clubhouse.
-  Facilities available to use include a billiards room, tennis courts and a Par 3 course. These are free of charge for paying guests, subject to availability.
-  Lunch is booked for you and can be taken before your afternoon round of golf. It is available between 11:30AM and 3:00PM.
-  Barwon Heads Golf Club (18 holes of golf (2 x golf carts are on request and can be paid for on the day). It is more than likely that the carts will be available but they cannot guarantee them until the day.)
The Barwon Heads Golf Club is located near the Bass Strait, and the sand dunes along with the weather conditions provide a course reminiscent of famed Scottish links. While not especially long the links will test golfers of all standards with cleverly positioned hazards, subtle slopes and greens, along with challenging tee positions. The wind ensures that the course rarely plays the same way twice even in the one week.
-  Barwon Heads Golf Club (Twin Share Room (2 x balcony rooms). Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner included. Accommodation includes car parking, free Wi-Fi, use of the Club's tennis courts and billiards room and access to the driving range, short-game practice area and complimentary use of the Club's Par-3 course. )
Barwon Heads Golf Club has 19 ensuite rooms, and a variety of packages are available incorporating your stay with golf, dining and entertainment.
-  As part of your package, you also have dinner included. Your dinner is reserved for the casual dining area at 7PM. You can amend with the reception staff when you arrive if you like. Dinner in the formal dining room is also available if you wish. Note: a Jacket is required if choosing to dine in the formal dining room.
