Day 6

Maroochy River (18 holes of golf with shared golf carts)

Maroochy River Golf Club is the Sunshine Coast's most prestige links golf course. Designed by Graham Marsh, the 18-hole par 72 layout is unique in that it is basically a links-style course, with wide fairways, few trees and lots of strategically placed bunkers. What makes it challenging is the water, which is a feature of almost every hole, and the wind. It's a rare day that the wind does not affect play, but one important benefit is that it keeps golfers cool in even the warmest weather.

Palmer Coolum Resort (18 holes of golf with shared golf carts)

Palmer Coolum Resort is a resort golf course offering a wide range of playing times OPEN 7 days per week to all public players. Contact either Palmer Coolum Resort or GOLFSelect for more information. Palmer Coolum Resort was designed by Robert Trent Jones Jnr, and represents one of his most subtle designs. Unlike other Trent Jones courses you wont find any of the huge undulation or the trademark double and triple tiered greens. The course is a subtle challenge rather than an intimidating brute. The designer himself described the course at Coolum in a similar vain saying 'This course is not designed to punish champions, just to find out who they are.'
